China Lilanz Celebrates First Anniversary of Listing
First Fashion Show in Hong Kong Since Listing
Stokes and CEO Dao Ming Aides the Show

1. China Lilanz Limited
The company's first fashion show since listing on the Hong Kong Stock Exchange was held at the Hong Kong Convention and Exhibition Centre on November 10, 2017. The show was attended by over 1,000 guests, including members of the media, fashion industry professionals, and the company's management team. The show showcased the company's latest collection, which was inspired by the company's 10th anniversary. The collection featured a variety of styles, including casual, business, and sportswear. The show was a success, and the company received positive feedback from the audience. The company's CEO, Dao Ming, and Chairman, Stokes, both attended the show and gave speeches. Dao Ming thanked the company's shareholders and employees for their support and hard work. Stokes praised the company's performance since listing and expressed his confidence in the company's future. The show was a significant milestone for the company, as it marked the first time the company had held a fashion show in Hong Kong since listing. The company's management team and employees were all proud to participate in the show and represent the company. The show was a great success, and the company is looking forward to continuing to grow and develop in the future.
